

Carbon RX Adds Senior Leadership to Strengthen Position in Growing Market

Regina, Saskatchewan – November 28, 2022 – Carbon RX Inc. (“Carbon RX”) is pleased to announce the appointment of Neil Dobson as Vice President – Business Development.

Neil brings 25 years experience as a business development professional in agriculture and food. Neil comes from Southern Saskatchewan and has a history of helping national and international companies develop brands and build solutions helping farmers adopt technology and innovation to improve their competitive advantage.

“We sit at an interesting crossroads where environment and food production meet the climate change concerns of the community,” remarks Neil Dobson. “Raised on a regenerative farm near Regina, Saskatchewan, it is in my DNA to respect the land for future generations. I am particularly inspired to assist First Nations communities to be active in the space of carbon capture and exercise First Nations environmental sovereignty.”

As VP of Business Development, Neil will drive the growth of Carbon RX’s carbon credit origination in both nature-based and hydrocarbon markets, with an emphasis on First Nations partnerships in the Canadian marketplace.

“Neil’s extensive and diverse experience of business growth and strategic planning comes at the ideal time for Carbon RX as we enter the exponential expansion phase of our business. He is the perfect guy at the perfect time,” says Marty Seymour, Chief Operating Officer, Carbon RX.
